Your route to reselling cloud voice to your customer!

Colt's Intelligent Communications for resellers allows your organisation to quickly and easily offer your customers a Cloud platform to enable Voice on Microsoft Teams, with Colt being your single point of contact and contract.

Cloud Voice for Your customers

Offer your customers voice activation on teams allowing them to improve productivity and collaboration. Without the high levels of investment typically needed to create this solution.

Trust that your customers are in safe hands with Colt as a certified partner of Microsoft and have been chosen as one of the few operators to join the Microsoft Operator Connect Programme.

Simplify Expanding your Service

Colt's Intelligent Communications for resellers is available across our Pan-European footprint, where you work with us as a single partner, so you can focus on your business instead of dealing with the challenges of managing multiple providers.

Solving your customers challenges with

- Cloud SBC – Voice activation on Teams can all be implemented in the Cloud with no on-site intervention in 10 working days
- Headsets and desk phones – Choose from a selection of native Teams desk phones and headsets to increase the productivity of your customers
- Professional Services – We provide a range of services to support your customers, including: training, adoption services, installation and configuration

A full communication system in the Cloud

With Colt you get the session border controller (SBC), connection and tariff to create your fully Cloud communication solution
